

Media Release

10 December, 2014

Trinity Hill announces a star studded line up for its summer of Food and Wine

Trinity Hill announced today that they will be holding a series of culinary events at the winery throughout the summer showcasing their wines with locally and nationally acclaimed Chefs.

Once a month during summer, Hawkes Bay personality Paolo Pancotti and his Molto Italian Kitchen will “pop up” at the Trinity Hill Cellar door for a relaxed Supper Club dinner and an opportunity to mix and match Trinity Hill wines at Cellar Door prices. Paolo is excited to be able to offer his authentic Italian inspired feasts to the people of Hawkes Bay saying “I have always felt that a good meal shared with friends over a great glass of wine is one of the simpler pleasures of life and I am really looking forward to bringing that to Trinity Hill.”

In addition to the Supper Clubs, Trinity Hill has confirmed their annual “Trinity Hill Garden Party” will be on the 7th February and will feature the owner and chefs of the much awarded Grove Restaurant in Auckland. Owner Michael Dearth and Executive Chef Benjamin Bayley will bring down their award winning team to cater a sumptuous three course lunch party in the gardens of Trinity Hill Winery. Bayley is well known throughout New Zealand through his role as a judge on My Kitchen Rules. He has also been awarded the coveted title of Cuisine Magazine’s 2014 Chef of the Year.

The Grove Restaurant recently received a rating of 10/10 from the New Zealand Herald. Other accolades include Cuisine Magazine’s Best Metropolitan Restaurant and runner up in Metro Magazine’s Best Fine Dining section. Michael Henley from Trinity Hill says “We are so excited to host Michael and the Grove restaurant in Hawkes Bay. This is an amazing opportunity to taste some world class cuisine from some of the New Zealand’s hottest culinary talent, as well as being amongst the first people to taste our much anticipated 2013 Gimblett Gravels wines which we are releasing on this weekend. Michael and Ben are absolute professionals and I am certain they will provide an exceptional lunch. This will be something all food and wine enthusiasts should not miss!”

Trinity Hill’s summer of food and wine aims to highlight the ability of their wines to match with food. Owner of The Grove Restaurant Michael Dearth said he was really looking forward to partnering with Trinity Hill for the Garden Party. “I am a big fan of their wines and love how they match with our style of cuisine. I love Hawkes Bay and all your wonderful produce and can’t wait to showcase some fantastic food and wine at such an iconic winery.”

For more information or to book tickets please contact

Janine Bevege

Janine@trinityhill.com | 8797779 ext 700